

WOMEN'S CLUBS' COUNCIL MEETS IN SALT LAKE CITY

State Federations and Individual Clubs to Take Part in Conferences During Week—Organizations
Here Entertain at Outings.

ALMOST like a big family party will be the gathering of women members of clubs at Salt Lake City this week. Delegates from all parts of the country will attend the General Federation of Women's Clubs Council, which opens to-day at the Hotel Utah and continues until Saturday. They will tell what their organizations have done and what they hope to accomplish.

The Council will be a fitting ending of a year of great effort in the world of women's clubs, and will be in the nature of a conference of the General Federation with State federations and individual clubs taking part. The programme has been so arranged that each delegate can attend every session without any outside interests to distract her attention. For this reason there will be no supplementary conferences, and each chairman will be asked to present her work herself.

There is only one event scheduled for to-day and that is a meeting of the board of directors. To-morrow there will be a meeting of the executive committee in the morning, and in the afternoon and evenings meetings of the board of directors. On Tuesday there will be a conference of the club presidents, State presidents and department chairmen, followed by the formal opening of the session. On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the formal opening will be devoted to business, with a luncheon at 12:30, with Montana and Idaho as hostesses. There will be a State presidents' dinner in the evening, with Mrs. Thomas G. Winter as toastmistress, followed by a musical and literary programme. Thursday will be department day, with Arizona and New Mexico as hostesses at luncheon and Colorado as dinner hostess. This will be followed by an evening session at Assembly Hall. On Friday there will be a conference of State and club presidents with department chairmen. Washington and Oregon will be the hostesses at luncheon. The afternoon will be devoted to music, literature, art and education. There will be a joint conference of board of directors and State presidents on Saturday morning and a meeting of the board of directors in the afternoon. The other delegates and visiting club women will stay for the day sightseeing. Daily drives to the nearby canyons will be a feature of the convention week.

Enterprise Club, Mrs. Alcinous Barton Jamison, president, will have an outing, luncheon, bridge and euchre on Thursday at Arrowhead Inn. Among those who have signified their intention of being present are Misses Jamison, Howard MacNutt, Marie Cross Newhaus, Adeline Wesley, Joseph E. Vidalm, Thomas W. G. Cook, Albert Schaefer, James Moran, Mary E. Barker, John Richard Brady, William Le Main, James Pringle, Charles A. Stoneham, Alfred Nicholson, John Lambert and Mary Donnarumma. Misses Elsie McDowell and Ida Judson. Mrs. Charles E. Haviland is chairman of the luncheon.

A garden party and bridge will be given by Mrs. Frederic Clark Brown at her country home in Yonkers on Tuesday for the members of Minerva Club, of which Mrs. Mary Stokes MacNutt is president.

The clubrooms of the Professional Woman's League, in West Fifty-fifth street, will be open all summer for the benefit of members who cannot be in town during the winter season. Mrs. Russell Bassett was hostess at a "get together" on Monday, and on June 20 Mrs. John McClure Chase will open her home at 200 West Seventy-ninth street for an informal meeting. A special card party will be given at the Waldorf-Astoria on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Georgia Mathieson will be chairman of the day. Prizes will be given, the door prize being tickets for one of the successful Broadway plays.

Drama Comedy Club, Miss Edyth Totten president, will close its season on Saturday with its annual June gambol at the Hotel Shelburne, Brighton Beach. The gambol will be an all day event, starting with luncheon, followed by dancing and later dinner. On the reception committee will be Misses Margaret Metcalfe Voss, Owen Downes, Conrad Stutenbord, Emelle Hinckley, W. H. H. McKeller and A. F. Buerkle, the Misses Louise Henry, Henrietta Collins and O. O'Donohue. In addition to these there will be a men's committee, composed of Messrs. Robert Hargrave, who will be master of ceremonies; Henry Bunnell and J. H. Hinckley, chairman; Pierre de Nu, W. W. Wilmoit, Gilbert Kuh, W. J. Martin, A. F. Buerkle, Carl Figue, Richard McCann, W. A. Shea, Dr. A. B. Clarke, Dr. Massey and Col. W. T. Wood. The club will begin its season next year on October 7. The year's programme includes a Friday review on the first Friday of each month.

The Woman's Auxiliary, Seabury Memorial Home held its last meeting of the season Monday afternoon at the home, 325 Highland avenue, Mount Vernon. There was a short business meeting, followed by an ice cream festival for the home family. Mrs. Harry Huddler, the president, arranged an interesting programme for the afternoon. The Misses Arthur C. Stoney, Charles Dana Dickinson, B. P. Rideing, George H. Corey, E. O. Steves, E. L. Hallenbeck, Georgia Clark Holmes and Miss Mabel Hurd assisted in receiving.

To celebrate his fiftieth birthday and the twenty-fifth anniversary of his professional work a dinner was given in honor of Prof. William R. Shepherd of Columbia University on Monday evening at the Hotel Plaza. As Prof. Shepherd is deeply interested in international phases and was much concerned in the Colombian treaty, several members from the Latin American countries were present. Justice Arnon L. Squires, a boyhood chum and comrade with Prof. Shepherd, was toastmaster. Mrs. Oliver Harriman, whose international war work is well remembered, was chairman and Mrs. Henry Clarke Coe presided over the birthday cake.

Address was made during the evening by Mr. Kumasaki, Japanese Consul-General, who gave greetings from his country for the kindness shown by Prof. Shepherd in his writings; Miss Flores Ecuador, who has just received her Ph. D. from Columbia, who told of her love for her country bears America and of the help in educational matters received at our universities; Senorita de Ycaza and her father, Senor de Ycaza, the Consul-General of Ecuador; Dr. Henry Clarke Coe, whose original verse, "The Half Way House," dedicated to Prof. Shepherd, was the evening's souvenir; Mrs. Coe, former Corporation Counsel John Whalen, Mr. Luther Reed, Mr. De Mille Brown, Dr. Duggin, head of the International Education Association of Columbia University, and Prof. Shepherd, who leaves soon for a year's absence abroad.

The executives of the Red Cross Health Centre throughout the Atlantic Division will hold a two day conference at the Hotel Pennsylvania on Thursday and Friday.

The New York Theatre Club, Mrs. Belle de Rivera, president, gave its annual spring luncheon at the Hotel Shelburne, Brighton Beach, on Tuesday. About 150 members were present. The luncheon was followed by bridge. This was the last event of the season of the club, which will resume meetings in October at the Hotel Astor, where it has its headquarters.

The Galaxy Club gave a dinner and dance on Thursday evening at the Hotel Marcelline for Mr. and Mrs. William Sherman, who recently entertained the club at their country home in Elizabeth, N. J. On this occasion the guests made the trip to Elizabeth in a special train. Supper was served on the lawn, which was lighted by means of Japanese lanterns.

The Seventh Assembly district of the League of Women Voters, of which Mrs. Robert A. Craft is leader, has established permanent headquarters at the Hotel Marcelline. Informal meetings and discussions will be held during the summer in preparation for an active campaign next autumn. It is planned also to disseminate throughout the district political literature of educational interest to women.

The Ladies of Charity Incarnation Unit will hold their usual euchre and dance Tuesday evening at the Corrigan Community Council Hall, Amsterdam avenue and 100th street. Handsome prizes have been donated for players and non-players. The St. Vincent de Paul Conference of the Incarnation Church will assist the women on this occasion.
